^Kindling the Chalice

Joe Del Sole, Worship Associate

As we kindle the chalice,
Let us also ignite the spark of transformation within ourselves.
May the gentle glow of this light
Illuminate the pathways of growth and change before us.
May this flame be a beacon of hope,
Guiding us through the journey of transformation.

^Hymn 361

DEPART TO SERVE

- ❖ Join us for coffee and fellowship after service!

- ❖ We are grateful for everyone
 - who creates this community - for every one of you in person and at home.
 - whose generosity and support ensure financial support for our worship services and ministries - our Annual Fund Campaign pledgers and contributors.
 - to our worship team, music ministry team, and our A/V team for preparing and co-creating worship together with the congregation today.
 - to our facilities and office staff, our membership and faith formation staff, ushers, greeters, and caring team volunteers, for engaging with and caring for our community.
 - Lyn Peters for the beautiful flower arrangement.

- ❖ Next Sunday, March 10, 2024
 - 9 AM: Quiet Callings with Rev. Abhi Janamanchi & Libby Wiebel
 - 10:30 AM: Rev. Dayna Edwards “Broken Crayons Still Color” - When a crayon is broken do you throw it away or continue to use it? Let's consider together what our spiritual work is in this consumer-based society.
